

Right Behavior for Followers of the True Law

Gabriel

We have taught you many things concerning the training of your souls in these messages up until this time, but aside from this, there are related matters which I would like to convey to you today. Even when speaking of the followers of the True Law, there are all kinds of people and some people, even though it may be against the will of heaven, ask for people around them to protect them and to keep them from harm because they do not wish to give up their lives. Such people do not even reflect on the fact that things went wrong in the first place because they conducted themselves unwisely, and they are totally unconcerned about the work of those around them coming to a halt. Also, people around this person make the mistake of believing that they are being compassionate in protecting their comrade, and they raise no questions regarding the person's faith in Heaven. They even turn around and ask for the same protection themselves.

As you must already be aware, among the angels of Heaven, I am more strict than most, and I usually do not individually point out the foolish mistakes of people, but instead leave people alone until they trip and fall, and they receive the reprimand of the King of Heaven.

Nevertheless, today I will clearly state that the intolerable behavior of this foolish follower of the True Law is not in anyway being overlooked by Heaven. How will those people who listen to this person and neglect their duty and faithfulness to Heaven for the sake of this person, explain their behavior to Heaven? Have they forgotten the importance of activities to spread the True Law?

Is their loyalty to us so weak and irresolute that they remain calm and collected even after breaking down the will and plans of Heaven? The generally high sounding words of these people are nothing but superficial words of flattery to Heaven, and there is no sincerity or truth to their words. They are just cowards and they have no ideas or inspiration about what should be done next. All they can do is constantly ask us what they should do next. The only thing they have managed to learn is the spirit of dependence.

There are some followers of the True Law who have even sworn to give their lives for the sake of Heaven. On the contrary, there are those who ceased their work of spreading the True Law because they did not want to give up their lives. Which of these people do you think brings the most joy to Heaven? You should give this some deep thought.

We did not come to invite fools or cowards into Heaven. If we should allow such souls into Heaven, we would forever have to drink the bitter cup of defeat in the battles Heaven wages against evil spirits, and this would lead to the same outcome as the battle we had with Satan Davide. We are seeking reliable souls to join us in Heaven. One must be reliable in the sense of having courage, wisdom and power to act at all times and under all situations. This also holds true for women.

Thinking highly of yourself in the belief that being honest and hardworking alone makes a good follower of the True Law, is nothing more than self-conceit. The foolishness of such individuals causes a delay in the activities for spreading the True Law. In Heaven, such individuals put other members in danger in the face of battles with evil spirits, and these individuals are not qualified to call themselves a follower of the True Law, and neither are they fit to be welcomed into Heaven.

Let me repeat. Being cowardly, foolish or lacking the power to act means that a person is not able to take nourishment from the faith, righteousness and love around oneself, and therefore that one is unable to acquire the virtues Heaven demands. This makes a person less than those religious people and ideologists whom we have no use for, and inferior to patriots and military people, because this is the kind of person who brings about the downfall of this nation and the whole world.
