

Those Who Intermediate on Behalf of Heaven

Raphael

Up until this time my messages have been transmitted through Miss Noriko Tsuchida. It would have been impossible to do this if Miss Tsuchida had not continually kept her soul in a beautiful and pure state which matched the vibrations of Heaven. As stated in previous messages, for a person to receive psychic powers from Heaven, or from a higher dimension, one must constantly keep one's vibrations attuned to Heaven. For this reason, these people must exert their will and efforts to practice spiritual disciplines which are much more difficult than those required of the other followers of the True Law.

Yet Miss Tsuchida is in the very same situation as other psychics. She differs from Miss Chino who is unable to live and accomplish her mission without energy supplied from Heaven. The only form of contact we have with Miss Tsuchida, aside from our occasional rounds of inspection to make sure that she is alright, is to have her come to Miss Chino's residence to receive verbal messages dictated through her clairsaudience when there is work for her. We angels are very busy, so even for the spiritual phenomenon during meetings of the True Law, we only are present for the allotted time and our presence on other occasions depends entirely on our convenience.

Perhaps you were not aware of this, but as Miss Chino wrote in the "Witness of the Kingdom of Heaven," we have all the while remained present at Miss Chino's residence, and we continue to come and go only from her house. There are special reasons for this as mentioned before, in addition to the fact that Miss Chino is the sole intermediary between Heaven and earth.

Do you have the resolve and courage to work together day in and day out and to constantly live even with just one being from a high dimension? This would mean that you would be unable to escape our view all of twenty-four hours. We have a wealth of compassion, but your soul which is covered over with an ugly false self will be relentlessly thrust out under the light of day to be exposed in the brilliant light of Heaven. Furthermore, one has to face up to one's faults whether one likes it or not; if it is not corrected it is exposed repeatedly until it is corrected; if something fails to be realized we remind a person until it is clearly realized. The successor must herself put her words into practice and undergo the spiritual disciplines she is given to become an example for others, so her circumstances are beyond the imagination of most people. But without such discipline, Heaven does not accept a person as being an individual with true spiritual powers.

The strictness of Miss Chino which comes out of these circumstances is meant to foster your spiritual growth and is rooted in compassion. Her demands are in no way impossibly difficult demands. Many people fail to understand this point and begin to reveal their false selves (the opposite aspects of their personality, or the false selves of self-advertising and the desire for praise) and try to rationalize even their own grievances and complaints. This is an ugly aspect of their personality which not one soul in Heaven has.

The qualifications for entering into Heaven that were listed in one of the books of the Kingdom of Heaven Series, will never change. Also the fact that this will remain the only way to save oneself, and that nothing else can, will also never change. The message transmitted to you every month is delivered in accordance to our careful plans, and only after those of us on the higher dimension of the Celestial Realm screen everything.

Those who have no self-knowledge, and those who are not able to strictly observe their own ugly aspects and gladly undergo spiritual training will never be able to fathom the deep truths contained in our messages. Thus it is only to be expected that those who intermediate on behalf of Heaven are treated coldly, persecuted and ostracized as being an enemy. That is all those who live by clinging to the values of this temporal world know to do.
