

Extinction

Raphael

For a period of about a year since last October those of us in Heaven had no opportunity to express our opinions or teach the law except through the Kingdom of Heaven Series, but with the inauguration last November of this magazine given the wonderful name "Jihi To Ai" (Compassion and Love), we are happy to say that this publication became the source of the flow of the True Law in the real sense. We would like to express our deep respect for those in charge of its editing and publishing for having the courage and deep faith in Heaven.

Now I, Raphael, have been given the task of conveying our message in this issue, and the matter I wish to clarify once again is the questions raised by readers of the Kingdom of Heaven Series regarding the terms used such as "betrayal" and "extermination," especially from those who read these books on recommendation from others, and those unable to sincerely follow what was taught in the Kingdom of Heaven Series. The main reason for doubt and disbelief stems from our stating facts like the eternal extinction and the betrayal of the good spirits.

Heaven passes judgement, and according to this the action of making undesirable souls extinct was used, and the world is being purged to eliminate evil. The unwise spirits who do not heed this dispensation and foolishly disobey Heaven's will and join the evil forces turn into evil spirits themselves. For this reason, "evil spirits" are judged strictly in the Last Judgement and are handed the ultimate death sentence in the name of Heaven to disappear forever. It is hard for us to understand why this raises doubts in the minds of some people in the third dimension.

According to the laws of Heaven, the people in the third dimension received the protection and guidance of good spirits, as well as the time and opportunity to repent and find new life. Nevertheless, people on earth did not follow this guidance and succumbed to the deception and temptations of Satan. They were blinded by prestige and monetary gains on earth, and lived in the world of greed created by their false selves which caused their spirits to become so depraved as not even to notice their own ugly condition. They paint up the castles in their lives with the white-wash of delusions of grandeur, hypocrisy and self deception. They win adoration and respect in the third dimension and finally end their lives totally blind as to what their true selves are. They go through death to enter the world of the dead with the self-righteous attitude that it is only to be expected that they go to Heaven. What awaits such persons is the strict judgement of righteousness.

Righteousness here means to have a keen discrimination to see through evil and the power to repulse this evil. Furthermore, righteousness is quick to see the truth and discern which is virtuous and righteous, and loves only the truth and takes joy in that which is beautiful, kind and sensitive. These are people who share with everyone, and who do not become arrogant with prestige and wealth in the third dimension, and further they are people with the humility to serve others. So we are speaking of individuals who have such an unbiased and generous attitude, and those with a very keen and active intellect who have sound reason and are not disturbed by the judgement of Heaven which punishes those who are evil or are in error. This kind of person with the virtues listed above as the foundation of their character are deserving of respect in the third dimension as well as in Heaven.

In Japan I gave a warning through Shinji Takahashi that 90% of the total population would fall to Hell by the strict judgement delivered by the scales of justice. So the worthless, evil and self-deceived souls, and those people and souls whose virtues are unclear and who disobey Heaven are judged and made to disappear forever. (We have been warning people about this since 2000 years ago.) Thus, we must speak again to those who are in doubt because they have been called traitors to Heaven, and those who cannot rid themselves completely of the desire for self-preservation with the soft attitude that Heaven always forgives and never punishes. Have you people ever stopped to consider how "the world of decadence" and the imminent danger of the destruction of the world are being brought about by the hands of Satan and those in league with him.

Does not the world of decadence or the destruction of mankind have any meaning, or cause a sense of urgency in you who consider things to be fine just so long as things are peaceful and uneventful around you? Do you not understand Heaven's true aim to correct these attitudes? Only because you are the way you are, do you have doubts and become critical of the punishments we are giving and fail to recognize your false selves which cannot let go of the desire for self-preservation. Although you may speak the logical truth, you lack the courage to purge yourself with it. You do not have the decisive will to tear down the various egotistical walls of self-preservation and desires to look straight at how your real self is repugnant.

You must all come to realize that those who see themselves as being good and perfect, and take pride in their life as being virtuous have an attitude which Heaven will cut through sharply and point out as being arrogance going against truth, and that such individuals will eternally lose the opportunity to learn the Laws of Heaven and the way to purify the heart.
